Diseased Animals—Care and Sale of—Sale of Meat and Milk From. (Chap. 204, Act Mar. 10, 1913.)

Section 2005 of the Revised Codes of 1905 as amended by chapter 162 of the Session Laws of 1909 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

"SEC. 2005. Duty of owners of stock—Animals in transit—Meats to be labeled.—The following regulations shall be observed in all cases of disease covered by this article:

"First. It shall be unlawful to sell, give away, or in any manner part with any animal affected with or suspected of being affected with any contagious or infectious disease, with such exception as shall be provided for by the rules and regulations of the live-stock sanitary board; and in case of any animal that may be known to have been affected with or exposed to any such disease within one year or prior to such disposal, due notice of the fact shall be given in writing to the person receiving the animal.

"Second. It shall be unlawful to kill for butcher purposes any such animals, or to sell, give away, or use any part of it or its milk, or to remove any part of the skin, with such exceptions as shall be provided for by the rules and regulations of the live-stock sanitary board: Provided, That in all cases where, under the rules and regulations of the live-stock sanitary board of this State, it shall be lawful to sell, barter, or give away for human consumption the meat from any animal affected with contagious or infectious diseases, there shall be placed upon each quarter of the animal so affected in at least 10 separate places a stamp or label clearly showing the words 'Affected meat.' No meat from any affected or diseased animal shall be placed upon the same block or table on which meat not so affected is handled. Failure to observe these provisions shall be a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 or to be imprisoned in the county jail for a term of not less than 30 days nor more than 1 year. It shall be the duty of the owner, agent, or person having in charge any animal infected or suspected of being infected with any contagious disease immediately to confine the same in a safe place, isolated from all other animals, and with all necessary restrictions to prevent the dissemination of the disease, until the arrival of an accredited agent of the live-stock sanitary board."

SEC. 2. Repeal.—All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Marriages—Prohibited in Certain Cases—Affidavit of Physician Required—License. (Chap. 207, Act Mar. 1, 1913.)

SECTION 1. No woman under the age of 45 years, or man of any age, except he marry a woman over the age of 45 years, either of whom is a common drunkard, habitual criminal, epileptic, imbecile, feeble-minded person, idiot, or insane person, or person who has theretofore been afflicted with heredity insanity, or is afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis in its advanced stages, or any contagious venereal disease, shall hereafter intermarry or marry any other person within this State.

SEC. 2. No clergyman or other officer authorized by law to solemnize marriages within this State shall hereafter perform a marriage ceremony uniting persons in matrimony, either of whom is an epileptic, imbecile, feeble-minded person, common drunkard, insane person, habitual criminal, or person afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis in its advanced stages, or any contagious venereal disease, unless the female party to such marriage is over the age of 45 years.

SEC. 3. The county judge, before a marriage license is issued, shall require each applicant therefor to file in his office upon blanks to be provided by the county for that purpose an affidavit of at least one duly licensed physician, other than the person seeking the license, showing that the contracting parties are not feeble minded, imbeciles, epileptics, insane persons, common drunkards, or persons afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis in its advanced stages: Provided, That in addition the affidavit as to the male contracting party shall show that such male is not afflicted with
